

Carnival of the Animals Project
PART 1: POSTER

We are going to use the website, “Canva” to create the posters online.

1. Go to www.canva.com
2. To Log In (upper right hand corner) –
 - a. Username is jkarvelius@sd308.org Password is: murphyband
3. Create POSTER
4. Select poster template or design your own.
5. Name the poster – Poster name is your first name and your partner’s first name (ex. Fred and Bobby)
6. Check poster for spelling/grammar errors and for neat/organized design
7. Throughout class period, click on FILE and SAVE so that you don’t lose any work done to your poster!

POSTER RUBRIC

	Excellent (9 points)	Good (6 points)	Basic (3 points)	Needs Improvement (0 points)
Individual Student Effort	Student contributed equally to the design and creation of the Poster	Student was reminded 1-2 times that they had to be contributing to the design and creation of the poster	Student was reminded 3 or more times that they had to be contributing to the design and creation of the poster	Student did not contribute to the design or creation of the poster
Poster Content	The poster’s content makes clear visual connections to the music.	The poster’s content makes some connections to the music, but there was at least one confusing element.	The poster’s content made some connections to the music, but there were more than one confusing element.	Most of the poster’s content was irrelevant to the music.

	Excellent (9 points)	Good (6 points)	Basic (3 points)	Needs Improvement (0 points)
Tagline or Description	Your poster phrase makes an obvious connection to the music that you chose.	Your poster phrase makes a connection to the music you chose, but it is not completely clear.	Your poster phrase is confusing and has very little connection to the music you chose.	Your poster phrase is not included in the poster.
Poster Appearance/Aesthetic	Poster is eye catching, colorful, neatly done, and presented in a logical manner	Poster is neatly done and presented logically, but could be more eye catching and colorful	Poster is not eye catching or colorful, and is not presented in a logical manner	Poster for your topic does not exist
Grammar/Spelling	Poster contains zero spelling or grammar errors	Poster includes 1-2 spelling or grammar errors	Poster includes 3-4 spelling or grammar errors	5 or more spelling and grammar errors are found in Poster
Presentation	Group members were able to describe the elements of their poster and how it relates to the music. Group members were able to answer any question about the elements of the poster.	Group members were able to describe the elements of their poster and how it relates to the music, however, when questioned, they could not give supporting evidence for all elements of design.	Group members were able to describe some of the elements of their poster and how it relates to the music, but some things were unclear in discussion	Group members were unable to describe the elements of their poster.

TOTAL POINTS: _____/54